AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF IOWA, KEOKUK COUNTY

I, the undersigned, being duly sworn, state that all facts contained in this Complaint and Affidavit, known by me or told to me by other reliable persons form the basis for my belief that the defendant committed this crime

State all facts and persons relied upon supporting elements of alleged crime

On January 20, 2024, the roommate of Craig Smith reported him missing to the Ottumwa Police Department (OPD), claiming that he had not seen Smith in over a week. OPD opened an investigation into Smith's disappearance and entered him into NCIC as a missing person.

Smith's sister, Alicia Eckley, told OPD detectives that she last saw Smith on January 7, 2024, at her home in Richland. She said that at approximately 12:30 p.m., Smith received a phone call from a friend, Desiree Potter, who asked Smith to work on a vehicle. Smith told Potter that he had to drop off a vehicle, a white 2012 Chevy Traverse, to Jeff Gautreaux and that he would meet Potter after.

Gautreaux lived at 21891 HWY 78, Ollie, Iowa, with his stepfather, Steven Grant. The Traverse that was registered to Grant.

Potter told OPD detectives that she spoke with Smith on January 7, 2024, around 12:07 p.m. She said that Smith said he was going to Gautreaux's residence and asked her to send pictures of the truck Gautreaux was going to fix for her. At approximately 12:32 p.m., Potter did not answer a call from Smith's phone number. This phone call was the last time anyone had seen or heard from Smith.

Cellular data analysis showed that on January 7, Smith's cell phone left the Eckley residence and traveled to the Gautreaux residence. The analysis showed data usage on Smith's phone over several hours while at the Gautreaux residence. Data usage stopped on January 7, at 6:24 p.m. The phone had no data usage until January 17, 2024, when Smith's phone was powered on. The analysis showed that on January 17 Smith's phone was still at the Gautreaux residence.

On February 1, 2024, a search warrant was executed at 21891 HWY 78 in Ollie.

During the search warrant, human remains were discovered outside of the residence. Based on statements Gautreaux made to law enforcement, the remains were those of Craig Smith.

In an interview with a DCI agent, Gautreaux said that he, Grant, and Smith were at the Ollie residence on January 7, 2024, for several hours. He said that while at the residence, he aimed a shotgun at Smith and pulled the trigger. He said he shot Smith in the face; causing his death. Gautreaux then concealed Smith's body and attempted to burn Smith's remains in order to conceal his crime. Gautreaux admitted to powering on Smith's cell phone on January 17 and later destroying it.

In an interview with law enforcement, Grant said that Smith and Gautreaux were at the residence in Ollie on January 7. He said that he was in the bedroom when he heard a gunshot. He said he came out of the bedroom and saw Gautreaux in the living room and Smith was dead.
