

International Association of Arson Investigators
IOWA CHAPTER
Reynold C. Hentges Memorial Scholarship

In 1997, the Iowa Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators established the R.C. Hentges Scholarship Program in honor of Reynold C. Hentges, the 1st President and Life Member on the Iowa Chapter when it was reorganized in 1993.

Each year, the Chapter selects up to two individuals to receive a one time $1000 scholarship. The scholarship award is disbursed as follows: $500 for fall semester and $500 for spring semester. Award checks will be made payable to the recipient and the school the recipient is attending.

Applicants must be a resident of Iowa and have been accepted to or enrolled as either an online or resident student in a nationally or regionally accredited college, university or vocational/technical school. Applicants must major in a field of education promoting a career in one of the following professions or area of study: Fire Service, Fire Science, Law Enforcement, Law, Fire Protection Engineering, Fire Protection Technology or Insurance. Previous scholarship recipients may reapply.

APPLICATION

The scholarship committee will review applications, essays, and references and make recommendations to the Iowa Chapter Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will consider the committee recommendations and make final selections. Recipients will be notified of their award and be requested to attend the banquet at the Annual General Meeting to formally accept the award.
